Profile Summary

Nagarajah is the firm's current Managing Partner and heads the General & Civil Litigation Department, the International & Domestic Arbitration Department and the Shipping & Insurance Department. He was called to the English Bar in 1979 and was subsequently called to the Malaysian Bar in 1980.

Nagarajah's experience and expertise in the areas of shipping litigation and maritime insurance has been recognized in Chambers Asia Pacific 2010 - 2013. He also authored the Malaysian chapter to the 2nd Edition of William Tetley's Maritime Liens and Claims. Amongst other notable achievements and affiliations, he is the immediate past President and is now a committee member of the Malaysian Maritime Law Association. He has presented a number of papers over the years as a member of the International Bar Association and the International Pacific Bar Association.

Known for his work in the insurance industry, Nagarajah and his team of lawyers regularly handle complex insurance and reinsurance disputes. Recently, Nagarajah and his team led negotiations on behalf of a leading Malaysian insurer with a leading reinsurer from the Middle East and the Labuan Offshore Financial Services Authority of Malaysia (LOFSA), which finally culminated in a landmark out-of-court settlement agreement between the parties premised on commutation clauses found in the motor quota share treaties.

Nagarajah is an active practitioner in the areas of international and domestic arbitration and has previously acted as an arbitrator. He is also a familiar personality in all levels of the Malaysian court including the Court of Appeal and the Federal Court and frequently appears as counsel for intricate or complex cases.

Firm's Overview

Shook Lin & Bok is an award-winning full service firm and one of most well-established in Malaysia, offering a comprehensive range of legal services spanning the globe. Such services range from civil and commercial practice, banking and finance, international arbitration, litigation disputes and intellectual property.

Ranked in 2017 as a Top Tier firm by famed research houses Legal500 and Chambers & Partners, the firm's dispute resolution practice has continuously thrived with the combined strengths of the General & Civil Litigation Department, Banking & Finance Litigation Department and International & Domestic Arbitration Department as its key practice contributors. The integral aspect of the services provided for this practice is to advise clients on overall litigation strategy especially in complex disputes and also to participate, lead and advise clients in any settlement negotiations. The litigation team has been involved in many high profile civil cases with a well-established niche in the shipping and aviation practice complemented by a strong domestic and international arbitration practice.

Over the years, the litigation team has acted for clients across industries, including governmental bodies, corporate organisations and private individuals. More notably, the team acted on behalf of The United States Department of Justice in the case of The United States of America v Shearn Delamore & Co and Drew & Napier & Ors [2007] 8 MLJ 654 in a complex contract dispute involving multimillion dollar admiralty suits.
